XV

DEUS EX MUSICA
DXM-015-CD

the Machine in the Garden and Deus ex Musica are proud to present XV, a very special limited-edition album celebrating the band's 15th anniversary. XV includes 15 tracks spanning the band's 15-year history, including demos, remixes, outtakes and two brand-new songs. All tracks are previously unreleased in this format and stunningly remastered for this CD.

The album is filled with the powerful songwriting of both Roger Fracé and Summer Bowman, each sharing duties as composers and vocalists. The songs span the vast styles the band is known for, layering rich textures of synthesizers, guitars and vocals into a variety of tracks ranging from ethereal to darkwave to goth rock.

Pete Murray of Lo-Pro contributes two remixes to the CD, the dance-floor-friendly "Wonderland (Mat Hatter Mix)" and the soothing trip-hop-inspired "Dawn (On the Rocks Mix)." Dancing Ferret recording artists Ego Likeness create an electronic whirlwind with "Mantra (Shades of Grey Remix)." Finally, dance-electronica artist Matrix remixes "Corpus Christi" into a fun, retro-dance style.

XV was released in December 2007 and is now available for purchase or distribution.

"Summer and Roger are accomplished musicians. They have a strong identity, but also the ability to vary their style, while remaining distinctively The Machine In The Garden." – Stuart Moses, Starvox

"The duo's blend of sultry vocals, electronica, and other instruments creates music that is both haunting and exhilarating, with songs that possess wonderful instrumentation, great psychological depth, and artistic vision." – Michael Casano, VIRUS! Magazine

To come from nowhere

A dream like the past

To know the difference

Now I find the time
